

100 Days of Kindergarten

Recently, Kindergarten celebrated 100 days of school. There has been so much growth in each child since that very first day of school. They have adapted to new routines, made friendships, experienced and learnt a lot of new things but most of all they have become an integral part of the community that makes North Ryde Public School so special. Congratulations Kindergarten!

